With appetites barely whetted by the magnificent display of horsemanship at the annual spring meet of the Virginia Racing and Horse Show Association, which began on Saturday, the thousands of Richmond's devotees at the shrine of King Horse will journey to the Fair Grounds to-day to revel in the many featured offerings gathered for their benefit.

For the lover of the high-gaited animal, who, with measured step, dressed in the latest and most fashionable of horsemanship, prances around the show ring, there will be the several harness classes. For those who lean to the timberrippers for their diversion, there are any number of hunt classes, with expert riders, and well known mounts. And for those of the fraternity who can find pleasure in nothing but the speed boys, there will be four races, each with a good field—two on the flat and over the hurdles.

Must See to Believe.
But those who failed to advantage themselves of the opportunity to watch the manoeuvres of Troop A, Twelfth United States Cavalry, on Saturday, there is a veritable treat in store. Advance stories of the dexterity of these men while mounted, barely touched the real thrills which one encounters while watching the thoroughness with which the animals answer to call of the rein, in the hands of the men astride them.

It is almost a matter of impossibility to do justice to Captain Lindsay and his crew, as they are the best drilled body of horsemen in the world—as they have been called—for certain it is that those who have watched the handling of horses for years upon years, marvelled at the performance of Saturday. It is such a performance that one must see to believe.

Imagine fifty horses, each with a separate rider, but all working in unison, cutting all manner of capers; at one moment seemingly in the utmost confusion, and the next showing a perfect alignment, heading in the same company on foot would look like a jagged ledge. Then imagine this same body of horses and men, doing a quickstep down the field—horses may be said to execute a quickstep—coming to a dead stop without even the swerving of a hair on a single horse's mane, and you will have just an inkling of what Captain Lindsay can make his men do. They are better drilled than any chorus on any stage and can execute just as many intricate figures. It is a feat which horse-lore to watch the troop drill, and it is missing a grand spectacle not to see it.

Work Horse Parade.
But while the troop drilling is going to attract a large crowd, remember that the work horse parade will also be a drawing card. It is indicative that this parade will extend for a mile and a half. A partial list of the entries is printed to-day, but only a partial list. Many of the firms who have entries have not yet sent in their names, and the very best in the work horse line, as Richmond is concerned, will be paraded, and it is not going to be an easy task to pick the winner.

The racing card, while not lengthy, looks classy. In the first race, over six furlongs, Platfoot should win, if he shows the form shown Saturday. He is a fast horse, though Nixole, despite her poor performance Saturday, should have a look in.

Tampico Looks Like a Winner.
Tampico is as good over the hurdles as he is on the flat, he should win the officers' steeplechase handily, barring accidents. He ran over his feet in the two-mile flat affair Saturday, and finished, apparently just beginning to run.

The third race will depend entirely upon the scratches. If Platfoot is scratched in the first race and runs in the third, he will win. The steeplechase, again barring accidents, looks like a pretty race between Berkoo and Essex, with Jack Baker a contender. Berkoo, while a good horse, has some nasty habits, and will hardly be a contender.

The officers of the association have a right to be proud of their meet this year. It is far better in every way than any previous effort, and will doubtless eclipse all of the past shows so far as attendance is concerned. Following will be a list of the entries in the several show classes and the racing events.

porters did not have a single slip-up, against Eastern's four.
Roth did not pass a single batter and did not hit one, his masterly control being a salient feature.
Then came that fatal tenth for Eastern—hair-raising finish, a fitting climax to the greatest battle on the Mount St. Joseph's campus. With two men down, Dave Roth, the hero of the day, walked to the plate and allowed two strikes and three balls to be called. On the next pitched ball, the first one he hit during all the game, Dave leaped back and smote over the right fielder's head for a home run. It was the only run of the game, and the large crowd tossed hats and cheered themselves hoarse. The students grabbed Roth, threw the big fellow on their shoulders and carried him around the campus.

CARS ARE TUNING UP FOR BIG SPEED TEST

Indianapolis, Ind., May 21.—Most of the forty-six cars named for the 500-mile International sweepstakes at the Indianapolis motor speedway are at the two and a half-mile brick oval now putting up their best performance for their masters. Faster and faster they are growing, and when the eligibility trials are started on May 26, all of them will be at their best. It is well they should, for every car must show a speed of at least seventy-five miles an hour.
All details for the long event have been planned and carried to completion. The race will start at 10 o'clock, and the gates will be thrown open to the public at 6:30 o'clock.
The start of the race is to be the most spectacular in the history of racing. The half-hundred cars will be brought up to the tape in about four lines. Carl G. Fisher, president of the speedway, will lead the big field the first time around the track in his roadster. A pace of forty miles an hour will be set, while the contestants shift into their positions for starting.
When the pacemaker reaches the tape on the first time around he leaves the field to its own speed desire, and the race is on. When the first car crosses, the timing instrument will start to work. Starter Wagner will drop the flag, a huge bomb will explode 300 feet in the air, and the race will be on.
Present indications are that fully 100,000 visitors will witness the long race. The speedway management has built additional stands and provided room for more than that many, while a bureau has been established in connection with the speedway officers to accommodate visitors who come from all parts of the nation. This bureau is obtaining rooms for many thousands ready in the best private homes in Indianapolis. The citizens have responded to the call for a place to entertain the guests of the speedway, and nearly every home in the city is ready to house a half dozen.

WILL PLAY DECIDING GAME IN RICHMOND

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Ashland, Va., May 21.—William and Mary and Randolph-Macon will meet to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on Broad Street diamond, Richmond, to decide which shall possess the silver cup given by the V. I. A. A. there is a tie between the two colleges, each having won four games and lost two. William and Mary took a double header from Richmond College on Saturday, and has defeated Randolph-Macon once. Randolph-Macon has defeated William and Mary once, and took the last of the series from Richmond last Wednesday in a closely contested game, the two teams are about evenly matched, and will play hard to win.
With Blanton on the mound, the Yellow Jackets feel confident of winning; yet, in Spencer, who will twirl for William and Mary, they know they will have no walkover, as he won a doubleheader on Saturday. The Yellow Jackets never believe they are defeated until the last man has been put out, so they will journey to the city to-morrow to help their team win by their routing. This should be one of the prettiest games of the season, since each team realizes what it is to lose, and each will go into the game to win or die. The line-up will be as follows:

BOXING TOURNAMENT FOR "WHITE HOPES"

New York, May 21.—A novelty is on the tapis for the boxing fans next week. It is the "white hope" tournament, to be held Friday night at the National Sporting Club. The idea is, if possible, to develop a man who, with proper training and experience, may eventually wrest the championship from Jack Johnson. The event is creating unusual interest. Already there are more than twenty-five entries from various parts of the United States and Canada.
Two men from Chicago, Arthur Pelley and George Debray, have written to the West A. Bonedier, Billy Madden's protege, will be a competitor.
